

2nd Annual Princess Ka'iulani Festival

Saturday, October 17th, 2009

9:00am – 4:00pm

Haleakala Waldorf School Campus
Kula Hwy, Kula, Maui, Hawai'i

Free Admission

Isle of Maui Pipe Band is pleased to announce the Princess Ka'iulani Festival, an event commemorating the life of Princess Victoria Kawekiu Lunalilo Kalaninuiāhiālapalapa Ka'iulani Cleghorn, heir-apparent during the reign of Queen Lili'uokalani, born in 1875, the daughter of Princess Miriam Likelike and Archibald Cleghorn.

Experience the coming together of community and visitors celebrating the cultural aspects that the Princess herself personified, honoring one of Hawai'i's most beloved and historically significant Royals.

Isle of Maui Pipe Band

Manu Boyd

HAPA

Halau Hula Wehiwehi O Leilehua

The Saturday event celebrates the Princess' Hawaiian and Scottish heritage featuring: Special Guests HAPA, Manu Boyd, Hula Ki'i with Calvin Hoe and the students of the Hakipu'u Learning Center, the Richard Ho'opi'i Ohana, hula specific to the Princess and the Royal Family by Halau Hula Wehiwehi O Leilehua with ukulele band Keaolani, Isle of Maui Pipe Band, Kula Kaiapuni 'o Kekaulike, Tropical Harps, Princess Ka'iulani Fashions: History of the Holoku'u, Finn McCoul and celebrity MC's Kathy Collins & Hamish Douglas-Burgess both of MANA'O Radio.

Kathy Collins

Kaolani

Princess Ka'iulani Fashions

Tropical Harps

Hamish of Maui Celtic

Included in the days events are exhibits, demonstrations by Hawaiian craft artisans, presentations by local groups and historians, Hawaiian games, children's contests and activities, Talk Story, vendors and food, all representing the two cultures. Special events will include an exhibition Hukihuki (tug-of-war) between Maui Police and Fire Departments, Exhibition Cricket Match by the Maui Cricket Club, Best Lau Lau, Best Scottish Shortbread, and Lei making contests along with classic Scottish events including men's "Bonniest Knees" and ladies rolling pin and Wellie (boot) toss contests. Prizes will be given for winners of each contest!

Princess Ka'iulani Cup Cricket Match

Sunday, October 18th, 10:00am-5:00pm, Baldwin Beach Park, Cricket Pitch, Pa'ia

The Maui Cricket Club Faces off against the Oahu Cricket Club in the first Annual Princess Ka'iulani Cup Cricket Match. Cricket has been played in the islands since the 1800's and was supported by King Kamehameha IV, who is now considered the patron saint of Cricket in Hawai'i, and was a sporting craze in Victorian Britain during the time of the Princess' exile in England. We are very pleased to include this new event as part of the festival weekend!

For more information contact: Norman Mizuno, Executive Director at 808-573-1130 or visit the band's website at www.isleofmauipipeband.com for more information, schedules and contest entry forms.

Princess Ka`iulani Festival

Saturday, October 17th, 2009, 9:00am – 4:00pm, Haleakala Waldorf School Campus, Kula
Free Admission

Scheduled Performances By:

HAPA

Halau Hula Wehiwehi O Leilehua

Isle of Maui Pipe Band

Richard Ho`opi`i Ohana

Finn McCoul

Calvin Hoe and the Students of Hakipu`u Learning Center performing Hula Ki`i

Tropical Harps & Upcountry Celtic

Kula Kaiapuni `o Kekaulike

Princess Ka`iulani Fashions: History of the Holoku`u Fashion Show

Special Guest: Manu Boyd presenting family history about the Princess

Lectures, Artisan Demonstrations & Craft Instruction By:

Ilei Beniamina & Ladies from Ni`ihau: Lei Pupu o Ni`ihau demonstration, display and Talk about life on Ni`ihau

Ku`ulei of Maui, Ku`ulei Martinson: Kapa Poho (Crazy Quilts) display and craft instruction, Hula Implements
& Hawaiian Weapons

Tom Stone: Papa Holua (Hawaiian Sleds) & Surfboards

Hoaka & Maile Delos Reys: Stone Carving demonstration, Ulu maika crafting instruction

Hano Degererra: Haku and Feather Lei making and crafting instruction

Calvin Hoe: Ohe Hano Ihu (Nose Flute) demonstration and crafting/playing instruction

Kipahulu Living Farm, Tweety & John Lind: Poi Pounding Demonstration, Ulu and Kalo Poi

Ambergris, Hamlin Gilmore: Scrimshaw Demonstration and crafting instruction

Pohaku Kaho`o Hanohano: Lauhala Weaving Demonstration and crafting instruction

Bill Wright: Ipu Carving demonstration and crafting instruction

Catherine Davenport: Kapa Making

Maui Ukulele Guild, Edmond Tavaris: Instrument craft display and information

Eliza Goodhue: Lomi lomi

Lezlie Bruce: Scottish Families on Maui Talk Story

Games and Contests:

Hukihuki (Tug-of-War) Maui County Fire Dept faces off against the Maui County Police Dept

Maui Cricket Club Exhibition Match

Children's Games, Races and Contests

Scottish Ladies Games: Rolling Pin Toss, Wellie (Boot) Toss,

Best Laulau Contest

Best Scottish Shortbread Contest

Best Lei Contest

Local Non-Profit Organization Booths: Supporting Community Stewardship:

Maui Invasive Species Committee, OHA:Kau Inoa Project, Princess Ka`iulani Civic Club, Hula Preservation Society,
National Park Service: Haleakala National Park Volunteer Program, Focus Maui Nui, Maui Historical Society: Bailey House
Museum, Ao`ao O na Lako Ia O Maui (Association of the Fish Ponds of Maui), Leeward Haleakala Watershed Restoration
Partnership, Habitat for Humanity, Maui Forest Bird Recovery Project, County of Maui Recycling Program,
Akaku Maui Community Television

Vendors:

Kenneth Hiraoka: Traditional Hawaiian fishhooks, weapons & poi pounders

Maui'z Homemade: Jams & Jellies

Maui Celtic: Irish & Scottish art, gift items & apparel

Ho`olawa Farms: Native Plants

Celtic Herladry: Clan history, Tartan Parchments & Celtic Art

Maria'delena Akau: T-shirts & suncatchers

Whispering Winds Bamboo: Bamboo plants

Hana Tropicals: Orchid baskets & cut tropicals

Photo Safari: Island Photo Eco-tours

Juniors Jewels: Handcrafted wood items

Food Vendors:

Isle of Maui Pipe Band: Bangers (Scottish Sausage) & Mash, Vegetarian Curry, Irish Stew, Tea Tent w/ baked goods

Kahakuloa Hawaiian Church: Hawaiian Plate w/Kalua Pig, Lomi Salmon, Aku Poke, Loco, Chicken Longrice, Poi, Lopai

Maui Coffee Association: Hot & Iced Coffee, Whole Bean

Kipahulu Living Farm: Kalo Poi, Ulu Poi, Lau lau

Haleakala Waldorf School, Grade 8: Haupia, Coconut Candy, Coconut water

Sunday, October 18th, 2009, 10:00 am, Baldwin Beach Park, Cricket Pitch, Pa`ia

Princess Ka`iulani Cup Cricket Match

Maui Cricket Club faces off against the Honolulu Cricket Club for title of this prestigious match, celebrating cricket in Hawai`i since the 1850's.